

Company (“TIG”), Virginia Surety Company f/k/a Combined Specialty Insurance Company (“Combined Specialty”), Western World Insurance Company (“Western World”), Endurance American Insurance Company (“Endurance”), American International Group, Inc. (“AIG”), American Home Assurance Company (“American Home”),¹ and Doe Insurers states as follows:

Jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to sections 157 and 1334 of title 28, United States Code. Venue is proper pursuant to sections 1408 and 1409 of title 28, United States Code. This Adversary Proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to sections 157(b)(2)(A) and (O) of title 28, United States Code, and the Court may enter a final judgment as to the merits of this case.

2. As set forth in detail below, USAG currently has hundreds of claims pending against it, nearly all tied, in some way, to the claimed abhorrent actions of Lawrence “Larry” Gerard Nassar (“Nassar”). USAG’s insurance policies are its greatest asset available to resolve these lawsuits. Determining the rights of USAG under its policies is at the heart of USAG’s reorganization proceeding and should be determined by this Court.²

3. USAG consents to the entry of final orders or judgments by this Court if it is determined that this Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

¹ For ease of reference, “Defendant Insurers” means CIGNA, Great American, LIU, National Casualty, RSUI, TIG, Combined Specialty, Western World, Endurance, AIG, American Home, and Doe Insurers with regard to the policies these insurers sold to USAG.

² USAG filed a Complaint for Breach of Insurance Policy and Declaratory Judgment of Coverage against its insurers in Indiana, Marion Superior Court 1, Cause Number 49D01-1804-PL-013423 on April 6, 2018, which was removed to the Southern District of Indiana on April 30, 2018 under Case Number 1:18-cv-01306-RLY-MPB. The case was stayed upon a joint motion on July 9, 2018 for the parties to engage in settlement negotiations focusing on the underlying actions. The stay was lifted on November 5, 2018. On January 25, 2019, the court administratively closed the case due to USAG’s bankruptcy filing and the automatic stay of the case under 11 U.S.C. § 362.

Introduction

4. This is a complaint for declaratory relief and breach of insurance contracts.
5. USAG seeks a determination of the scope of its rights under comprehensive general liability (“CGL”) and directors and officers (“D&O”) primary, excess, and/or umbrella insurance policies sold to USAG by Defendant Insurers with respect to:
 - a. athlete claims brought against USAG arising from Nassar’s actions;
 - b. athlete claims brought against USAG arising from a coach’s actions;
 - c. state and federal investigations of USAG related to Nassar’s actions;
 - d. The United States Olympic Committee’s (“USOC”) independent investigations related to Nassar’s actions;
 - e. lawsuits brought against USAG by former coaches, employees, and organizations related to Nassar’s actions;
 - f. suspended and/or ineligible USAG members and coaches who have brought claims against USAG;
 - g. criminal actions brought against former USAG employees and others related to Nassar’s actions;
 - h. criminal investigations related to Nassar’s actions;
 - i. USOC’s decertification proceedings;
 - j. USAG’s bankruptcy proceedings; and
 - k. insurance coverage for crisis management.
6. USAG seeks actual and consequential damages arising from Defendant Insurers’ breaches of their respective policies, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on all such damages, and any and all further relief to which it may be entitled.

The Underlying Lawsuits and Claims

20. USAG has been named as a defendant in over 100 different lawsuits in connection with the actions of Nassar as well as some non-Nassar related survivor lawsuits and claims (collectively “Underlying Survivor Claims”). The Underlying Survivor Claims allege various claims against USAG including, but not limited to, negligent hiring, negligent retention, negligent supervision, and negligent failure to warn, train, or protect. Certain plaintiffs also allege claims against USAG for fraud, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and RICO violations. Contemporaneously with this filing, USAG is filing a “Master Claims and Policy List” that includes a chart identifying the Underlying Survivor Claims as Exhibit 1³.

21. In addition to the Underlying Survivor Claims, USAG has been named in a number of lawsuits brought by former coaches and gyms (“Revocation Lawsuits”). The Revocation Lawsuits include claims related to coaches who have been suspended, expelled, and/or permanently banned from membership in USAG. It also includes coaches and gyms that have made various claims related to loss of reputation and business in connection with the fallout of Nassar's actions. A chart identifying the Revocation Lawsuits is attached as Exhibit 2 to the Master Claims and Policies List.

22. USAG also must determine its rights under the USAG policies for coverage related to state and federal investigations, internal and independent investigations, criminal actions and criminal investigations, crisis management, its bankruptcy, and the USOC's decertification process ("Specific Coverage Issues"). A chart identifying the Specific Coverage Issues is attached as Exhibit 3 to the Master Claims and Policies List.

The Insurance Policies

23. Exhibit 4 of the Master Claims and Policies List includes a chart identifying the USAG policies as well as a copy of each policy and/or evidence of each policy identified at the time of this filing. USAG has added a "MP" Bates' identifier to the bottom right-hand corner of each policy page with consecutive numbering for ease of identifying various provisions in particular policies. USAG will update the Master Claims and Policies List as it identifies additional claims, policies, and/or evidence of additional policies.

24. TIG sold CGL primary, excess and/or umbrella insurance policies to USAG for at least the periods from August 1, 1987 to August 1, 1988, January 1, 1992 to August 1, 1998 and from August 1, 2001 to August 1, 2004 (the "TIG Policies"). The TIG Policies include:

33. AIG and/or American Home and/or one of AIG's subsidiaries or affiliates sold liability policies that may provide coverage to USAG. AIG and/or American Home and/or one of AIG's subsidiaries or affiliates may have sold other applicable liability policies to USAG, which will be added to the Master Claims and Policies List.

34. Doe Insurers are insurers unknown to USAG at the time of this filing that sold insurance policies to USAG under which USAG may be covered for the liabilities at issue. These policies will be added to the Master Claims and Policies List as they are identified.

First Cause of Action

(Declaratory Relief)

35. USAG incorporates by reference the averments of paragraphs 1 through 34 above.

36. An actual controversy exists as to the scope of USAG's rights and Defendant Insurers' obligations under their respective policies for the Underlying Survivor Claims, Revocation Lawsuits, Specific Coverage Issues, and related claims. These include but are not limited to:

- a. controversy regarding defense and indemnity obligations for these various claims under each policy;
- b. controversy regarding which policies respond to which claims;
- c. controversy regarding limits under each policy as it relates to the number of "occurrences";
- d. controversy regarding allocation of damages over multiple years of coverage with multiple "occurrences"; and

- e. controversy regarding the USAG Insurers' rights and obligations to settle claims in good faith when policy exhaustion may be at issue.

37. All required premiums on the policies have been paid in full. All other pertinent conditions to coverage have been satisfied, excused, or waived.

38. USAG has been damaged by Defendant Insurers' refusal to confirm coverage and satisfy their duty to defend.

39. Declaratory relief will help resolve the dispute between USAG and the Defendant Insurers.

40. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 57, 28 U.S.C. § 2201, Indiana Trial Rule 57, Ind. Code § 34-14-1-1, and Indiana Trial Rule 57, USAG is entitled to declaratory relief establishing Defendant Insurers' obligations to defend and indemnify them for the Underlying Survivor Claims, Revocation Lawsuits, Specific Coverage Issues, and related claims.

Second Cause of Action

(Breach of Insurance Contract)

41. USAG incorporates by reference the averments of paragraphs 1 through 40 above.

42. The USAG Insurance Policies obligate Defendant Insurers to defend and indemnify USAG for the Underlying Survivor Claims, Revocation Lawsuits, Specific Coverage Issues, and related claims.

43. Certain Defendant Insurers have breached their duties to defend by not providing a full defense and/or by not timely and fully reimbursing defense costs.

44. Certain Defendant Insurers' wrongful denial of coverage and/or refusal to confirm they will indemnify USAG is a breach of their obligations to USAG under their respective policies.

45. As a result of certain Defendant Insurers' breaches, USAG has incurred costs, expenses, and damages, including actual and consequential damages arising from the breach and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on all such damages.

46. USAG is entitled to recover from certain Defendant Insurers all costs, expenses, and damages, including actual and consequential damages arising from Defendant Insurers' breach and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on all such damages.

THEREFORE, USA Gymnastics requests that the Court enter judgment in its favor and against Defendant Insurers as follows:

1. Declaring that under terms of Defendant Insurers' policies, Defendant Insurers must defend and indemnify USAG with respect to the Underlying Survivor Claims, Revocation Lawsuits, Specific Coverage Issues, and related claims;

2. Declaring which policies respond to which claims;

3. Declaring the available limits under each policy given the number of "occurrences";

4. Declaring what is included in defense costs;

5. Declaring how the insurance proceeds are to be allocated over multiple years of coverage and multiple "occurrences";

6. Declaring the rights and obligations of the Defendant Insurers to settle the various claims in good faith given the possibility of exhausting policies;

7. Finding that certain Defendant Insurers have breached their obligations under their respective policies, and finding Defendant Insurers are required to defend and indemnify USAG for the Underlying Survivor Claims, Revocation Lawsuits, Specific Coverage Issues, and related claims;

8. Ordering Defendant Insurers to pay for all of USAG's actual and consequential damages, costs of this action and attorney's fees incurred in this action, and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on all such damages; and

9. Award to USAG any additional relief, including any appropriate equitable relief, as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
